C. Old Business:

1. Historical Society- Shawn Quimby will give the Select Board a quote to do the work. STTS Aimee Nelson will also call Seacoast Security about a quote to install an alarm in the garage.
2. Fire Pond & Access- The water test came back and the results are amazing. There is still one more water test that needs to be done before the town can have a license from the state for the water access for the residents.
3. Building Statement of Values- The Select Board reviewed the paperwork and signed the statement for the insurance.
4. Performance Reviews- Tabled

D. Guest: John and Jacelyn Lappin attended the meeting to explain their concerns with the performance of the plow job this year. They said Cross Road is not being kept up on. During the last storm when they got home, there was 8 inches of snow on the road and Jacelyn had to plow her way in with her vehicle. John has to leave for work very early in the morning and the roads are still not done by that time. Travis isn't getting it done. 8 hours is way too long to go with Cross Road not being touched. During this past week the ice on the road has been terrible and no sand was put out all day. Selectperson, Richard Montana said he will talk to Travis (the plow contract person) and tell him to make sure the roads are plowed and sanded.

E. New Business:

1. January Bank Statement- The Select Board reviewed and initialed the January bank breakdown.
2. Sub-Accounting Statement- The Select Board reviewed and initialed the January Sub- Account breakdown.
3. RSU#3 Candidate Nomination Papers- RSU#3 papers are available, The Town of Troy rep. is not up for election but the residents will be able to vote on the other towns' reps. at the June election.
4. Panic Button- The Select board asked STTS Aimee Nelson to contact Sea Coast Security and get a quote on a panic button being put in the office. The quote for 1 panic button will cost $477.00. The Select Board voted and unanimously approved it being put in. STTS Aimee Nelson will contact Sea Coast Security and start the process.
5. Audit Agreement Letter- The Select Board reviewed the agreement and signed it.
